At The Bid'ness Meeting

Joe and Dale have both agreed to continue on if reelected for another reunion cycle. Dale has been wearing way too many hats lately, so the position of Vice President will be open and needs to be voted on by the crew. As Dale is currently filling that billet, we will need some hard working individuals to step up and throw their hat in the ring. You can run for Association President as well.

I'm the idiot that stood up instead of shutting up, so I have been unanimously "reappointed" as Association Gofer. Anybody dumber than me please stand up!

We also need to select the 2024 Reunion location. This reunion has been a total shock to the planners. We had no idea the number of crew membes who would want to return to the old home away from home. We can't do it again, but we could do something similar. And to "hit the middle", maybe a redo of Branson or for something different, FT Worth "Cowtown". Y'all got the whole country to pick from, so put your thinking caps on.

Shipmates:

For some unknown reasons it seems booking a room has for many proved to be a challenge. I booked early directly with the front desk and had no issues. It seems the 800 number/web site options have not been as smooth for some. We now have a backup hotel, Hampton Inn, Groton, because of this. Seems that hotel is also not "issue free" when booking. Joe is not a happy camper with this, as he has spent way too much time dealing with both hotels with it seems limited success. As the old Indian Chief in "Josey Wales" said, "We will endeavor to persevere." seems to be the only recourse. I have checked both hotels with on-line booking sites and every time they show rooms at both hotels available for booking. So as the old Indian said, "Endeavor to persevere."

We will spend Friday morning at the museum and the USS Nautilus is tied up pier side of the museum. The museum is a treasure trove of submarine history and artifacts. The Nautilus will remind you of possibly some of the best days of your life. The morning will not be long enough.

Sub Base Groton

Lunch at the base galley. "Take all you want. Eat all you take."

An afternoon "windshield" tour of the base will be followed by a stop at Dealey Center Theater for the showing of three videos of sub school trainers. The buses will then depart and return us to the hotel.
